Hello All!

Happy springing into summer! When my friend Luned Palmer lived in San Francisco she was an inspiring influence and an integral part of ArtSeed. She recently described her experience with us this way: "It's where I learned to share art-making with children and learned about spreading joy and magic through art to all people! I moved away from San Francisco 12 years ago, but ArtSeed still holds a place dear to my heart. You may be familiar with the annual Art-a-thon, a fundraising drive to help ArtSeed with their amazing summer camp, teen partnerships, and prolific art-making experiences for veterans, seniors, children, and more!"

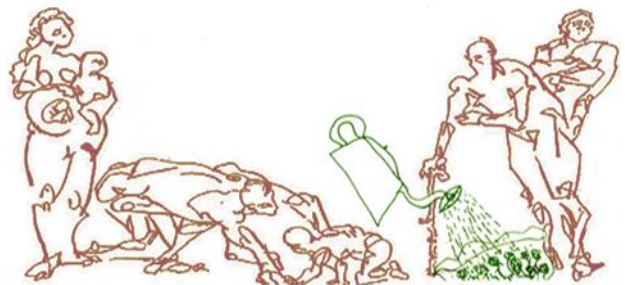

By popular demand, the Art-a-thon has been extended into ArtSeed's summer season. You can dedicate your gift to someone (and we can let them know!) by placing their name and/or contact information in the memo section of your check, payable to ArtSeed, to P.O. Box 29277, San Francisco, CA 94129. Is online giving more your style? Then click the homepage "Donate" icon. Using your phone to sponsor someone? Before your transaction, click "View Desktop Version" and then look for the "Special Purpose" prompt.

Art-a-thon participants can track their sources of support and you can follow their progress on the Leader List at www.artseed.org. Click on hyperlinked names to find out more about them. Art-a-thon in real life is free! The online leadership race and interactive exhibition is also open to all!

ArtSeed participants have transitioned from "creativity endurance" to "creativity assurance" mode. Haven't we all endured enough these past two years? Let's pace ourselves for the long haul by gathering in person by appointment 2 – 4 p.m. on Saturdays and virtually 4 – 5 p.m. on Tuesdays to assure communing safely and creatively into the wild and wooly future. Thank you very much, in advance, for considering a donation and for joining the fun!
